

WILLOWBANK

LOWER CAMPUS COMMONS SUMMER 2021

This design-build studio integrates Willowbank students, Master of Architecture students from the University of Waterloo, and industry professionals to redesign the Laura Secord school on Willowbank Campus.

Students will balance conservation practices with creative solutions to integrate interior and exterior public space, intergenerational living, and on-site material reuse. Special focus will be on material, cultural, and social ecologies and heritage as a layered, dynamic, and living process.
